

WOMEN UNITED TO AID AIMS OF DISARM PARLEY

Committee Composed of Delegates From Several Bodies Will Focus Expression.

The creation of an organization known as the Women's Committee for Limitation of Armaments, whose functions will be "to provide a focusing point for the expression of women of all nations at the beginning of the International Conference on Limitation of Armaments," was announced yesterday.

A mass meeting, to which the public will be invited, will be held in Washington on Sunday, November 13.

The organization of the Women's Committee for Limitation of Armaments was the result of a joint meeting of the chairmen of the Women's Trade Union League, represented by Miss Ethel Smith; the League of Women Voters, represented by Miss Harriet James; and the Women's Committee for World Disarmament, represented by Miss Emma Wolf.

Practically all the large organizations of women in the District will be represented in the new organization, it was announced by the temporary officers, who are Miss Ethel M. Smith, chairman, and Mrs. Florence V. Watkins, secretary. Mrs. Kate Trenchholm is chairman of the committee to finance the mass meeting.

LIFTING LID ON BEER AROUSES METHODISTS

Statement of Temperance Board Says Palmer Couldn't Be Elected Dog-Catcher.

International News Service.

An attack on former Attorney General Palmer and a number of Senators is made in a statement issued today by the board of temperance, prohibition, and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church regarding the beer regulations issued last week by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, and based upon the decision of Palmer "that doctors may prescribe unlimited booze."

Palmer Couldn't Be Dog-Catcher. "No one had any respect for Palmer's decision when he gave it," said the statement, "and no one has any respect for it now. It may be that Palmer could be appointed to some office again, but unless we miss our guess he could not be elected dog-catcher in Padunk."

The statement says that Mellon's decision to put these regulations into effect is "most unfortunate and is contrary to the general policy of the Administration."

"No doubt some father long denied his beer will tank up on the good medicine now and go home to beat out the brains of his baby," said the statement. "If so, there are certain Senators who should attend the funeral. If the Senators who are responsible for the filibuster which has delayed the anti-beer bill think that the people will not remember their inexcusable behavior they have sadly misread the signs of the times. There are enough drys in any State to select to it that such patriotic action is properly dealt with.

"To Senators Broussard, Stanley, and Reed among the Democrats, and to Senators Brandegee and Moses among the Republicans, to all who have aided and abetted them in their conspiracy against the Constitution, we can only say this: 'There are millions of people who will meet you at the polls when the day comes.'"

Four HURT IN CRASH ON WAY HOME FROM CHURCH

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Oct. 31.—Four persons were injured, one probably fatally, as a result of an automobile accident on the State road between Hagerstown and Pinksburg at noon yesterday when the steering wheel on the machine driven by Homer Koogle, near this city, locked. Edna Koogle, who was pinned beneath the machine when it turned turtle, is at the local hospital in a serious condition. The Koogle family were returning from church.

In the car besides Mr. Koogle, who was bruised about the body, were Mrs. Koogle and daughter Mary, all of whom were thrown clear of the car when it turned over. They were also taken to the hospital, but were later removed to their home.

11,894 FEDERAL WORKERS IN D. C. CUT OFF ROLLS

Report for Year Ending July 31 Shows Decrease of 93,634 Throughout Country.

Federal employees in the District of Columbia, numbering 11,894, were eliminated from the payroll during the fiscal year ending July 31, 1921, according to semi-annual report of the United States Civil Service Commission, just made public.

The report shows that there was a reduction of 93,634 in the number of Federal civilian employees, throughout the United States, in the year ending, since November 1, 1918, to July 31, 1921. More than 300,000 Federal employees have been dropped.

There were 39,255 employees in the District of Columbia on June 30, 1918, the report shows. On November 1, 1917, there were 117,769 in Washington, and on July 31, this year—thirty-five months later—there were 78,865, a reduction of 38,894.

Said Weeks To Hiram: "You Weigh More Than I"

Said Secretary of War Weeks to Senator Hiram Johnson when they met at the White House today.

"I'm getting heavier of you," "Howzat?" asked the robust Californian. "Why," said Weeks, "I hear that you weigh more than I do." "How much?" inquired Johnson. "Two hundred and sixty-five," said the Secretary of War proudly. "I've got you beat," declared Johnson. "I climb on."

"More power to you," said Weeks. And, having settled that important question, they returned to the affairs of State.

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

Celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the opening of Neighborhood House, 470 N street southwest, will begin at 7 o'clock tonight and will continue until November 5.

The program for the week will include "Book Characters in Review," 7 o'clock tonight; the Woman's Club benefit supper, 4 to 10 p. m., tomorrow; Divorce in Every Seventh Marriage.

Dr. Fox said that every seventh marriage today resulted in divorce and that if the present rate continues the number of divorces would equal the number of marriages, a situation which now almost has been reached in certain localities.

There is a large school of popular novelists, playwrights, film producers, essayists, and philosophers who today are teaching that the monogamous marriage relation is undesirable and who are thus undermining the Christian home," he said.

"The sad part is that scores and scores of people are accepting their doctrine with avidity. Many of our leading writers are today in a virtual state of polygamy."

Dr. Fox said that most divorces could be traced to two chief causes—economic pressure and distorted ideas of happiness.

"The demand for luxuries has become so great that married persons find life unbearable unless they maintain the same standards they enjoyed when single. A young man just getting married is expected to have a large income as his father-in-law. The young married man and married woman want to continue to dress the same as they did when they were single. And if they are unable to maintain the same standards, they get tired of married life."

Ideas of Happiness False. "Married couples expect too much of married life. They have false ideas of happiness. They expect to live in paradise and never quarrel. Then comes disillusionment and disappointment."

Dr. Fox said that aside from the feminist movement, the most dangerous enemies of marriage are hypocrites. "There is nothing but hypocrisy in our attitude of ridiculing, teasing, and joking about such a sacred institution as courtship. And there is still greater danger of hypocrisy in that Puritanical view that courtship is something unholy. We should regard courtship as something sacred, not to be teased about."

Romanticism makes courtship something unreal, fanciful, gilded, devoid of reason. It is all right for those who are courting to raise fancy standards, but they should not wave it over reason's foot. Reason never should be dethroned at such an important period of life."

Uniform Divorce Laws Needed. Dr. Fox said that the great need was for uniform divorce laws throughout the country.

"At present we have a separate divorce code for virtually every State," he said. "These codes range from the South Carolina code, where couples can be divorced for no reason at all, to the more drastic where they can be divorced for sixteen specific reasons and then for any other reason deemed good and sufficient by the presiding magistrate."

Dr. Fox said that the real solution of the divorce problem was the throwing of greater sanctity and seriousness around the marriage ceremony and the instilling of Christian ideals in the hearts of those entering the marriage relation.

I do not believe in immortality of souls or the permanent deprivation of any one race," said Dr. Fox. "Spread eagle. Fourth of July talk about our immortal nation is a costly delusion of reason. This nation has no inherent qualities that will guarantee it perpetual domination of the world. But if this nation does not will to live for one and only one reason—because the Christian home has been undermined."
